

Notice to Hosts and Producers: I have 3 great platforms targeting your listening audience interests!!!

Michelle A. Payton,
Ph.D., D.C.H., Author

Credentials: Mind Over Matter/"Whole"istic Author, published 6 books, Creator and Master of the Birth Mix Patterns™ using Astrology, Numerology and Birth Order, a Ph.D. and Doctorate in Clinical Hypnotherapy (400+ hours formal study), Master of Neuro-Linguistic Programming™, Certified Practitioner (50+ hours of formal study) of the Emotional Freedom Technique™, Bachelor's in Communication Arts, Worldwide Radio Guest.

Were you destined to be a talk show host? This guest knows based on your birth day and order!

Michelle's 3 book releases on Astrology, Numerology and Birth Order — "Birth Mix Patterns — are packed full of information that is certain to educate, enlighten, entertain and encourage listeners to stay tuned to your station. She uses the birth mix process she created — including birth day (Astrology, Numerology) and order -- and shows how this mix reveals your and others motivations. Michelle is a great call-in guest with information like: Why you interact with co-workers, partners, friends, siblings, love interests... the way you do; What this means to your finances, ability to expand intellectually, physical health, social needs and perceptions, and spiritual development; How these mixes influenced the past (great for current people and events in the news), how they can influence the present and future destinies and more.

Do you want to know if your child is intuitively gifted? Are you looking for tips to connect with your gifted child? This mainstream metaphysical mom has some answers!

Michelle's 3 book releases on "Adventures of a Mainstream Metaphysical Mom," "Soul'-utions," and "Healing What's Real" are packed full of information to educate, enlighten, entertain and encourage listeners to stay tuned to your station. Dr. Payton talks about how all children tap into the subconscious with ease and connects to Universal messages and tips on how to support their ability to remain "open" to information.

Are you curious about self hypnosis? Did you know you experience hypnotic states every single day? This hypnotherapist has some answers!

Dr. Payton is going to demonstrate how and when you and others do this first-hand and take the mystery out of the process so you can use this at will to shape a positive reality now. She will share what you've experienced since you opened your eyes this morning and how to heighten your senses to effectively visualize success. You will be able to set self-healing in motion, and/or set your intentions more deeply into your mind for the day, week, month, and beyond to activate your forward moving financial, intellectual, physical, social, and spiritual plans. This is based on Dr. Payton's book, "Healing What's Real."

Books can be sent for review (six published to date) and additional copies are available for promotional giveaways on your station as well upon request.

I so appreciated Michelle coming onto "The Way of the Toddler Hour." Not only was she an insightful and knowledgeable guest, but she offered both me and my listeners tools that have begun to make a difference in my life already! Two days after interviewing her, I put pen to paper and thought deeply about what she talked about during her hour on "The Way of the Toddler Hour." The resulting clarity has brought me an expanded sense of peace and for that, I am very grateful. She is, indeed, one of my all-time modern day metaphysical mothering heroines! — Leta Hamilton, Host of the Way of the Toddler Hour, Author & Presenter, www.thewayofthetoddler.com, Seattle, WA Area
